

ARGUS

1. Ulysses was fighting wars for many years and hence, took so long to return to his native place.

2. a. F

b. T

c. F

d. F

e. F

3. Argus was neglected and malnourished and also aged which made him weak. When Ulysses saw Argus he was so overjoyed that Argus crawled to meet his master.

4. Argus longed to meet and behold Ulysses. When he saw Ulysses he was overjoyed and crawled to his master to fawn and kissed his feet.

B.

1. Ulysses did not want to disguise himself, he was wearied and ravaged by war and aged by time.

2. Argus was unfed, unhoused and neglected after his master, Ulysses had left for war. Nobody cared for Argus and he was probably abandoned.

3. Argus was neglected and abandoned. He was a victim of the resentment of those ungrateful men who let him suffer in starvation.

4. The dog died due to the happiness and excitement caused by his master's arrival.